I'm Howard Ruttan and I eat, sleep, live, breath, and dream in an atmosphere of 100% sawdust - I have for over 30 years and I still can't resist the urge to tell you all about it. I still refuse to clutter up the place with ads and other junk, so I keep it simple: pictures and words. Follow the links to read about my adventures and click the highlighted words to see my many photos.

While I do try to add new stuff when I can, I spend most of my time at work and, when able, I am making or dreaming of sawdust - or planning out my next shop. I continue to declare proudly that this is a recreational woodworking site with no cookies, pop-ups, or rampant commercialization. Here you will find information, not a list of empty, outdated links mined off the web. Bookmark my page and come again for a visit. The coffee is always on. Life is good! Work wood!
